THE QUESTIONS WE ASK (continued)

Yet, with technological advancements and new post-modern philosophies, questions about faith are getting more complex. This series will address six of our church's top questions and one question about the Trinity, which was asked in the "My Questions" portion of our recent survey. We look forward to digging deeper into Scripture to answer these questions together!

WARM HANDS, WARM HEART

Help us reach our goal of 125 pairs of gloves to be donated to lthaca elementary schools to keep little hands warm this winter. We're still accepting donations of various sizes of water resistant gloves and mittens.

MEDIEVAL CHURCH HISTORY

Delicious soup followed by learning about the Medieval Church? Sign me up! This Lent, we will be learning about the Medieval Church, the one thousand years between the early church period and the start of the Reformation in the 1500's. You are invited to this deep dive into invasion, discovering the old world as Spain arrives in the new world, finding out about Byzantine Christianity, the birth of Islam, and how the Church responds. Watch Europe become the center of Christianity, migrating from Asia minor and Africa, and begin to understand the light of Christ in the Dark Ages as the Church sees the dawn of the reformation.
